Prof Sundar Sarukkai Bionote

Prof. Sundar Sarukkai is the founder of Barefoot Philosophers. He was Professor of Philosophy at the National Institute of Advanced Studies until 2019 and was also the Founder-Director of the Manipal Centre for Philosophy and Humanities where he set up an innovative interdisciplinary postgraduate program. He is the author of the following books -Translating the World: Science and Language (2002), Philosophy of Symmetry (2004), Indian Philosophy and Philosophy of Science (2005), What is Science? (2012), JRD Tata and the Ethics of Philanthropy (2020), Philosophy for Children: Thinking, Reading and Writing (2021) and two books co-authored with Gopal Guru—The Cracked Mirror: An Indian Debate on Experience and Theory (2012) and Experience, Caste and the Everyday Social (2019). His most recent book is The Social Life of Democracy (Seagull, 2022). He is the Series Editor of Routledge's Science and Technology Studies as well as the Co-Chief Editor of the Springer Handbook on Logical Thought in India (2022).

He has been actively taking philosophy to different communities and places, conducting philosophy workshops for children and bringing philosophy to the public through his writing in the media.
