

Media Coordinator's Office Jamia Millia Islamia

February 8, 2017

Press Release

Jamia Millia Islamia and Purbanchal University, Nepal become academic partners, sign MoU

Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) today signed an MoU with Purbanchal University, Biratnagar, Nepal for long term academic collaboration and partnership between the two institutions. The MoU was signed by Prof. Talat Ahmad, Vice-Chancellor, JMI and his counterpart from the Nepalese university, Dr. Ghanshyam Lal Das.

The MoU will enable the two institutions to collaborate in the field of research, education and innovations leading to restructuring of courses, development of new methods of teaching and learning and undertaking interdisciplinary studies and promotion of international understanding.

Further, it also envisages faculty and student exchange, research collaborations, joint conferences, seminars, workshops and sharing of academic data, intellectual property and publications.

Speaking on the occasion, JMI-VC, Prof Talat Ahmad said that common areas should be explored and identified for research and exchange of faculty and students.

Dr. Das, who is heading the 45-year old university, said that he was delighted to sign the MoU with one of the largest, biggest and oldest universities of India. He added that JMI has progressed under the dynamic leadership of Prof Ahmad who wants to strengthen ties between the two institutions.

The MoU was signed in the presence of Mr. A.P. Siddiqui (IPS), Registrar, JMI and senior faculty members of both the institutions.

Prof. Saima Saeed

Hony. Deputy Media Coordinator

Attachment: Pictures