INTERNSHIP CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Ms. Rukmani Monga, a second-year student of MA Gender Studies at Jamia Milia Islamia University, New Delhi was an intern at my office from 01.07.2018 to 31.07.2018. During her time here, she researched extensively on laws relating to women and gender, including research on Sexual Harassment at the Workplace, sexual offences and violence against women and rape of minors. At the time of her internship, my office had raised a constitutional challenge to the Criminal Laws (Amendment) Ordinance, 2018, which inter alia extended the application of death penalty to cases of child rape. Rukmani ably assisted me by extensively researching statistics, delving into victim impact studies and analyzing the gender impact of the Ordinance.

Rukmani was a polite, efficient, motivated intern and a pleasure to have in the office. She was punctual and regular and keen to learn as much as she could in the time she was here. I was pleased with her progress over the course of the internship, as she was able to improve her research, presentation and writing skills. I wish her all the best for her future endeavours.

Dear Mr. Firdous,

Further to our conversation about the interns of Gender Studies, we would like to share that Shakti Shalini has worked out broad line of action that would be finalized with the participation of the students after they join.

Please convey your students that they would report on 2nd July, 2018 (as 1st July is a Sunday) to Ms. Sudha Tiwari, Chairperson, Shakti Shalini at 10:30 am. in the office of the Organization. Be sure the learning objectives laid out by the Centre for the students would be met with full dedication and delegeance of the students.

With regards,
Bharti Sharma

We hope to have mutually gainful experience.

Dear Maám

Greetings from Sarojini Naidu Centre for Women's studies

At the very outset let me thank Shaktishalini for providing an opportunity to Masters students of batch 2016-17 for doing internship

I am very keen to send 4-5 students from th batch of 2018-19 again for internship in Shaktishalini as it was very useful for the students of Gender studies.

Just to brief you about the objectives if internship of Master's students of Gender studies.

Just to brief you about the objectives if internship of Master's students of Gender studies.

This internship is a compulsory component of their paper 'Gender Rights and Laws in India' under Ability enhancement paper consists of 2 credits this internship comes under Ability enhancement paper in which students are supposed to get exposure of laws operating at the institutional/organisational level and various procedures involved in it.

Their course work consists of various laws related to women.

A report of their work will be submitted and evaluated by the internal and external examiner. the Word limit for the report is 5000 based on their work done in the respective organisation and the report must contain the legal rights of women, its violation and how to make justice more accessible keeping in mind the objective of the paper, i request you to kindly guide them to study the cases registered with Shaktishalini and the procedure and steps taken by the commission for addressing the issue of violence committed against women and write a report..

The date of internship as per the syllabus is from 1st July to 31st July
After completing the internship, they will be given certificate.

I would be sending the list of students who would be doing internship after receiving confirmation for same.

Warm Regards.
