

CERTIFICATE DISTRIBUTION PROGRAM FOR HUNAR SE ROZGAR TAK

Organised by Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management, Jamia Millia Islamia

Supported by Ministry of Tourism, Government of India

18th October 2019, New Delhi: A certificate distribution ceremony was organised for the students who have completed the “Hunar Se Rozgar Tak” programme. The program was supported by the Ministry of Tourism which offered skill-based training for the Food & Beverage Service and Front Office skills. The program was aimed at targeting youth with limited means and in need to acquire skills facilitative to employment. Post-classroom-based training the students efficiently completed their on-job training in different sectors of the hospitality industry. With the completion of this training, the students are awarded the certificates which will help them in the initiation of their career in the industry.

The Chief Guest for the program was Prof. Rameshwar Prasad Bahuguna, Director of Arjun Singh Centre for Open Learning. The program started with a brief description of the Hunar Se Rozgar Tak program by Mohd Yunus Khan, Assistant Professor, Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management. He elaborated how the training has assisted the student in developing their skills so that they can grab the employment opportunities in the tourism industry. This was followed by an inspirational talk by Dr Sarah Hussain, Associate Professor, Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management. She also highlighted the prospect of the youth working in the tourism and hospitality industry.

Prof. Rameshwar Prasad Bahuguna stressed the importance of the industry and the role the training program will play in the career progression of the learners. The programme was presided by Prof. Nimit Chowdhary, Head of the Department. He reiterated that we at Jamia Millia Islamia are motivated and geared to conduct such programmes on regular intervals with utmost efficiency and dedication to provide the maximum number of people the opportunity to get a kickstart in their career. The programme convened with the certificate distribution to the students.
