

Two-day National Seminar
Reimagining Peace and Development in India's North East

Sponsored by

Indian Council of Social Science Research
Ministry of Education

Centre for North East Studies and Policy Research
Jamia Millia Islamia

Event date: 27–28 July 2026

Venue: Centre for North East Studies and Policy Research
Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi 110 025

Original paper proposals are invited on the following themes:

- Impact of political development in neighbouring countries
- Border management and infrastructure projects
- Strategic significance of Siliguri corridor
- National security concerns
- Drug trafficking and smuggling
- Development initiatives and changing dynamics of insurgency in the region
- Peace education in the context of north east region of India

Guidelines for submission of paper proposal:

Experts, policymakers, researchers, academicians, students and others are invited to submit social and policy-relevant paper proposals strictly adhering to the following guidelines:

- The submission must be in a Word Document only, and must be at least 400–500 words
- Mention the title of the proposal, the name(s) of author(s) with their affiliation/contact details
- The submission must be original, evidence-based and solution-oriented
- Please submit the proposal to: msingh1@jmi.ac.in

The call for paper proposals is open until 05.04.2026.

Centre for North East Studies and Policy Research
Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi 110 025
Email: cnespr@jmi.ac.in, Mobile: 9560349294

<https://jmi.ac.in/Event/National-Seminar-on-Reimagining-Peace-and-Development-in-India%E2%80%99s-North-East/Call-For-Paper>