

DTHM showcased “DILLI TALES ‘ and EXPRESSATHON Exhibition to mark the end of the semester

November, 22nd the last teaching day of the odd semester and a Friday was exceptionally happening at DTHM with students bustling everywhere. It was going to be an exciting day with a movie screening and exhibition scheduled which was keeping students on their toes.

Today their hard work for the entire semester was to be showcased and judged. The Movie show – DILLI TALES was organised as a part of MTTM 1st semester students assignment where in ,they had chosen a tourist attraction in Delhi and made a movie on the same with live interviews of the visitors. The event Judges were Dr Asong and Dr. Madhumita. As the show rolled judges and audience were thoroughly entertained and were mesmerised by the unmatched photography and concepts showcased by the students and the way they showed the monuments with different perspectives. All the movie clips were unique in their own way.

The later part of the day saw the lecture theatre turning into exhibition hall with charts all along and the live display of the guest amenities kits. This was the assignment of BHM 1st semester kids which was to be showcased - EXPRESSATHON The students had to design the guest amenity kits like , Bathroom kit, dental kit, grooming kit , guest stationary kit, pillow menu kit , aroma kit , slumber kit, ambient lighting kit . The kits were designed by the student and they explained the kits. The event was judged by Dr.Sarah Hussain and Ms Sudha Chandra. Both the event were conceptualised by Dr Shweta Chandra to ensure practical learning and exposure for the kids.

