

DEPARTMENT OF
TOURISM & HOSPITALITY
MANAGEMENT

JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA

A Report on VIGILANCE AWARENESS WEEK “Vigilant India, Prosperous India” (27th October to 2nd November 2020)

As a part of observing Vigilance Awareness Week (VAW) 2020 during October 27 – November 2, 2020, the Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management, Jamia Millia Islamia enthusiastically spread awareness amongst students through various interactive activities and events. Students enrolled in different programmes of the Department participated in the contests and displayed their artistic and academic skills. The principal objective of event was to enhance knowledge and awareness with along with enhancing creativity amongst the students by promoting expression of their ideas using the colours of imagination, knowledge, and skills. There were a series of events conducted online to bring out the best in them.

Poster-Presentation

(Date : 30/10/2020)

To bring out the creative expression of the students and also to gauge their awareness quotient, Poster Presentation Competition on the theme “Anti-Corruption” was organised. Amidst the pandemic situation, the presentation of posters was through online mode and each participant was giving ten minutes to present his/her piece of work.

This activity kept the student engaged and it was organized to explore and encourage creativity in students and offer them a platform to showcase their skills. It inspired them to think and to work creatively in order to promote artistic excellence. The creativity & innovative ideas to resolve the particular issue were artistically presented through and captured in posters. The artistic endeavour of the students was highly praised and encouraged by the faculty members. The posters were assessed on the basis of rubrics such as relevance to theme, creativity, visual appeal, balance, legibility and oral presentation by Dr. Nusrat Yasmeen (Assistant Professor) and Dr. Priya Singh(Assistant Professor). Winners were awarded with the certificates.

Virtual Debate

(31/10/2020)

As part of the VAW, a virtual debate titled, 'Battle of Minds' was organised to encourage a brainstorming and aware culture amongst the students.

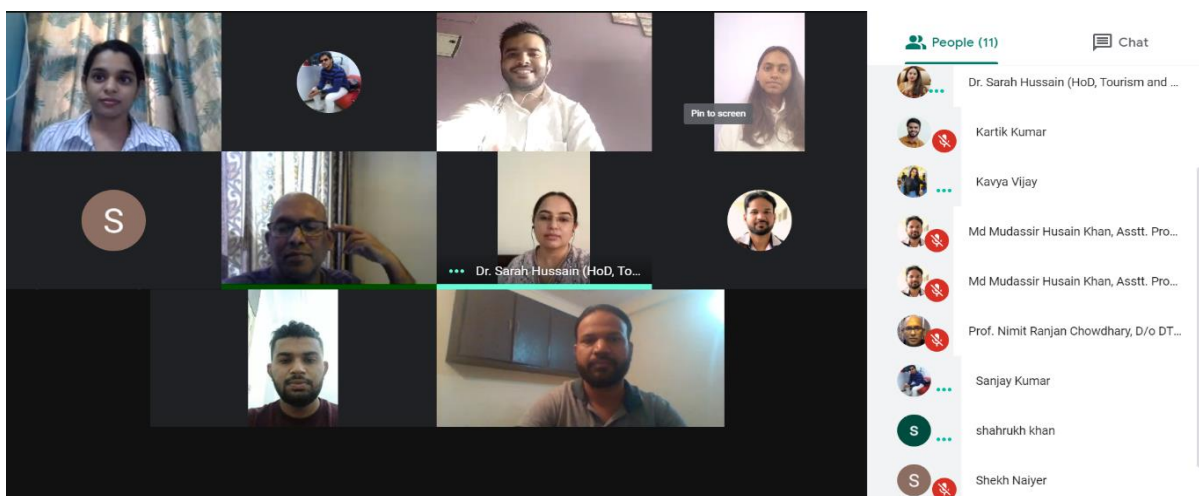

The topic of the debate was in sync with the national theme of VAW. The pan India theme for WAS this year is 'Satark Bharat, Samriddh Bharat' (Vigilant India, Prosperous India). In the same lines, the topic of the debate was, "The elimination of corruption lies in the hands of the citizens more than the government". Four students spoke for the topic and four students spoke against the topic. They very efficiently raised points that highlighted the role of citizens in blowing the whistle against any wrong doing in public, the introduction of bills such as

Right to Information due to public protest amongst other examples. The argument against the topic advocated the paramount role of government in maintaining law, order and justice in the society. Both the sides with utmost diligence put forth their stand.

Judge professor Nimit R Chowdhary along with the Head of the Department, Dr. Sarah Hussain provided students with important lessons for future and encouraged their future participation. Kartik Sharma backed the second position while Kavya Vijay was awarded first. Being one of the first kind of debates for DTHM, the enthusiasm and zeal amongst the students and faculty members helped in making it a success and a precedent for future debating culture. Such an atmosphere allows exposure and development of new thoughts among student.

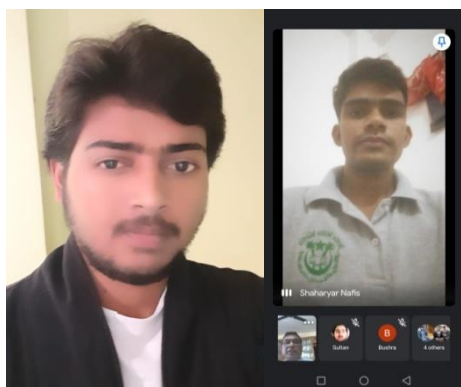

Essay Writing Competition

(31/10/2020)

The Department also organized an offline competition on Essay Writing. The theme of the event was: Women Rights' Awareness. The essays submitted by students emphasized the concern on how women in India and abroad are often deprived of their basic rights even in the 21st century. The essays evidently mentioned the leaders from history who stood for women rights, and the contemporary leaders such as Malala Yousafzai, Angela Merkel, Indira Nooyi etc. who are creating a space for women in both the political and economic world. The essays were creatively written and adorned with beautiful pictures, and mentioned explicitly that awareness starts from home. Further, the students critically analysed the increasing number of crimes, violence, gender gap, and low literacy rate among women in India in spite of several policies introduced by the government. The essays were judged on the basis of the writing style and structure, creativity, grammar, and originality. Accordingly, the event was won by two students- Syed Mohammed Huzaif and Jyoti Panwar from under-graduate programmes in the department.

Online –Quiz

(01/11/2020)

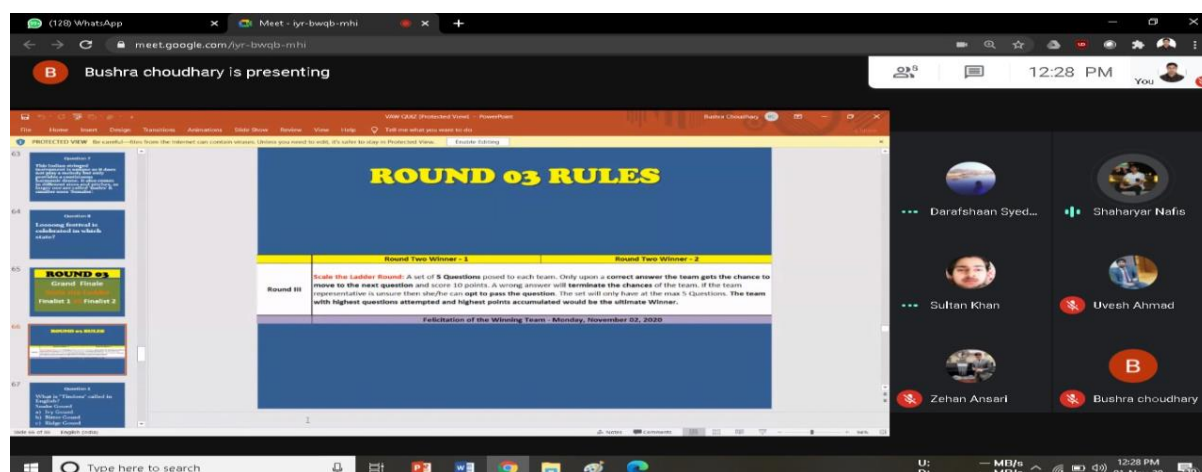

The event attracted 22 participants through online registration from various courses, such as MTTM, MHM/MBA, BTTM and BVOC. These students were then grouped into 8 teams two days prior i.e. on the 30th of October.

On the day of event students battled it out in 9 teams for three competitive rounds namely 'Fast Chats First', 'A Minute to Win it' and 'Scale the Ladder'. The final round saw two students Sultan Khan from MTTM and Md. Nafis Alam from B.Voc. compete. Winning the round Sultan Khan became the final winner. The event started at 1100 Hrs and culminated at 1230 Hrs.

The quiz was conducted over the internet through Google Meet with the underlying theme of the Quiz event being Vigilance, Tourism and Hospitality. The event was coordinated by Quiz Master Syed Wali Khaled, Mr. Arman Khan and Ms. Bushra – Ph.D. Research Scholars from the Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management.

All the events were coordinated by Dr. Priya Singh, and Mr. Mudassir Khan (Assistant Professor) under the leadership and supervision of Dr. Sarah Hussain (HoD), Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management. PhD Researchers of the Department Ms. Pinaz Tiwari, Ms. Snigdha Kainthola and Mr. Syed Wali Khaled played an important role motivating students and organising these events.

The event concluded by distributing certificates to the winners of these events with a promise that all members of the Department will adhere to highest level of strong moral principles; honesty and decency by following rule of law in all walks of life. Faculty members of the Department also took online integrity pledge to show zero tolerance towards corruption conducted by Central Vigilance Commission, Government of India.

DEPARTMENT OF
TOURISM & HOSPITALITY
MANAGEMENT

JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA

VIGILANCE AWARENESS WEEK
“Vigilant India, Prosperous India”
(27th October to 2nd November 2020)

The Department organized multiple events in order to observe Vigilance Awareness Week 2020. Following is the list of winners for the ONLINE competitions.

A. ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION

1st - Syed Mohd Huzaif (BTTM)

1st. Jyoti Pawar (B.Voc.)

B. POSTER MAKING AND PRESENTATION

1st-Nivita Singh (MBA)

2nd- Nusrat Jahaan (BHM) and Uvesh Ahmad (BTTM)

3rd- Jyoti Pawar (B.Voc)

C. ONLINE DEBATE:

1st. Kavya Vijay (MTTM)

2nd. Kartik Sharma (MTTM)

D. QUIZ

1st. Sultan Khan (MTTM)

2nd. Md. Nafis Alam (B.Voc.)