DESK OF THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

Dear All,

I am pleased to extend my warm greetings on the occasion of the 1st Jamia National Mediation Competition organized by the Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia. This initiative is a meaningful step towards strengthening experiential learning and reflects the University's continued emphasis on nurturing practical skills alongside academic excellence.

In today's evolving legal landscape, mediation has assumed a vital role as an effective, accessible, and collaborative mode of dispute resolution. It promotes dialogue, mutual understanding, and amicable settlement of disputes, thereby reinforcing the broader objective of access to justice. Platforms such as this competition provide students with a valuable opportunity to engage with the real-world dimensions of mediation, while developing essential skills such as negotiation, communication, and problem-solving.

I am glad to note the association of distinguished experts and practitioners whose experience and insights greatly enhance the academic and professional value of this competition. Their interaction with students will undoubtedly enrich the learning process and encourage a deeper appreciation of consensual dispute resolution mechanisms.

I commend the Faculty of Law, the Organizing Committee, and the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee (ADRC) for their dedication and meticulous efforts in conceptualizing and successfully organizing this event. I also extend my best wishes to all the participants and appreciate their enthusiasm and commitment.

On behalf of Jamia Millia Islamia, I wish the 1st Mediation Competition great success and hope that it proves to be a rewarding, insightful, and inspiring experience for everyone involved.

From the Desk of the Registrar

Dear Participants and Guests,

It is my privilege to extend very warm welcome to all the participants, legal professionals, and faculty members to the 1st Jamia National Mediation Competition, organized by the Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia.

As an institution committed to the holistic development of its students, Jamia Millia Islamia has always prioritized the blend of traditional academic rigor with modern professional practice. This competition represents a significant milestone in our journey to promote Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) as a cornerstone of legal education. By moving beyond the adversarial nature of litigation, we aim to cultivate a generation of legal professionals who prioritize harmony, empathy, and creative problem-solving.

Mediation is more than just a procedural alternative; it is a philosophy of peace-building. This event provides a unique platform for the brightest young legal minds of the country to refine their communication and negotiation skills while engaging in a spirit of healthy competition. The presence of esteemed practitioners and experts from the field further ensures that the insights gained here will be of immense value to your future careers. I take this opportunity to congratulate the Faculty of Law and the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee (ADRC) for their tireless efforts in bringing this vision to fruition. Their commitment to creating a professional and intellectually stimulating environment is truly commendable.

To the participants, I encourage you to embrace this experience not just as a competition but as a journey of professional growth. We are honoured to have you on our campus and look forward to your contributions toward making this inaugural edition a resounding success. I wish the event and all the participants the very best.

DESK OF THE DEAN, FACULTY OF LAW

Dear All,

It gives me immense pleasure to associate with the 1st Jamia National Mediation Competition, organised by the Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia. This initiative reflects the Faculty's commitment to experiential legal education and the promotion of Alternative Dispute Resolution in the evolving legal landscape.

Mediation plays a vital role in enhancing access to justice and aligns with the national vision of "Mediation for the Nation", the goal of a Viksit Bharat, and the progressive framework of the Mediation Act, 2023, including its emphasis on community mediation. Platforms such as this Competition provide students with valuable exposure to the practical aspects of mediation and the development of essential professional skills.

The Competition also resonates with contemporary reforms in legal education, including the Bar Council of India's proposal to introduce Mediation as a separate subject, underscoring its growing importance for future legal practitioners.

I commend the Organising Committee and the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee (ADRC) for their efforts and extend my best wishes to all participants for a meaningful and enriching experience.

Prof. (Dr.) Ghulam Yazdani

DESK OF THE CO-CHAIRMAN

I extend a warm welcome to all participants of the 1st Jamia Millia Islamia National Mediation Competition, being organised by the Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia. Mediation has emerged as an integral component of the contemporary justice delivery system, offering a consensual, efficient, and humane approach to dispute resolution. By promoting dialogue, mutual understanding, and negotiated outcomes, mediation strengthens access to justice while reducing the burden on formal adjudicatory mechanisms.

Your participation in this national-level academic endeavour reflects a commendable commitment to professional development and to the acquisition of skills that are increasingly vital in modern legal practice. Mediation competitions provide students with meaningful exposure to principled negotiation, effective communication, and structured problem-solving. These competencies are indispensable not only for effective dispute resolution but also for ethical and responsible legal practice. Such platforms nurture discipline, collaboration, and respect for diverse perspectives—values that are fundamental to the legal profession and academic life alike.

The Competition offers a valuable opportunity for interaction with experienced practitioners and academics, enabling participants to gain practical insights into mediation as a dynamic and evolving mechanism of dispute resolution. This exposure contributes significantly to the holistic development of future legal professionals. I commend the Faculty of Law for this laudable initiative and extend my best wishes to all participants for a rewarding and enriching experience at Jamia Millia Islamia. I am very hopeful that the Competition will serve as a meaningful milestone in your academic and professional journeys.

DESK OF THE FACULTY CONVENOR

At the Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia, we firmly believe in fostering a dynamic and enriching academic environment that promotes intellectual exchange, innovation, and holistic growth. Our commitment lies in providing students with a transformative learning experience one that is interdisciplinary in nature, forward-looking in approach, and deeply rooted in the values of justice, critical thinking, and ethical responsibility.

It gives me immense pleasure to note that the 1st Jamia National Mediation Competition stands as a reflection of the Faculty's dedication towards promoting alternative dispute resolution mechanisms in the contemporary legal landscape. This initiative has provided an exceptional platform for students to interact with leading experts, enhance their analytical and negotiation skills, and gain practical insights into mediation and other ADR processes. The competition has undoubtedly been an enriching and enlightening experience, broadening participants' understanding of ADR and the diverse career opportunities it offers.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our distinguished speakers and experts for generously sharing their knowledge, experience, and valuable perspectives. Their contributions have greatly enriched the discourse and deepened our collective understanding of mediation and arbitration as vital tools in modern dispute resolution.

I would also like to sincerely appreciate the tireless efforts of the members of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee (ADRC), whose dedication, coordination, and commitment were instrumental in the successful organization of this event.

On behalf of the Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia, I extend my warmest greetings and best wishes to all participants, and I hope this competition serves as a meaningful step in their academic and professional journeys.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

The 1st Jamia National Mediation Competition 2026, organised under the aegis of the Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia, aims to promote mediation and negotiation skills among law students across India. The Competition seeks to advance the culture of Alternative Dispute Resolution by emphasising mediation as an effective, collaborative, and future-oriented mechanism of dispute resolution, while also highlighting its growing professional relevance for aspiring legal practitioners.

The 1st Jamia National Mediation Competition 2026 is scheduled to be held on 12th, 13th, and 14th February 2026, and will bring together teams from leading law schools across the country to compete in a structured and intellectually stimulating format.

Rooted in Jamia Millia Islamia's longstanding commitment to academic excellence, social justice, and inclusive legal education, the vision of the Competition is to create a rigorous yet accessible learning platform for students with an interest in mediation and ADR. The Competition aims not only to provide a forum for budding lawyers to demonstrate their mediation and negotiation skills but also to strengthen engagement between academia and the legal fraternity, thereby contributing to the development and institutionalisation of mediation practices in India.
