

SAROJINI NAIDU CENTRE FOR WOMEN'S STUDIES CELEBRATES INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi, March 09, 2015: A significant number of students participated in the On-The-Spot Essay Competition organized by the Sarojini Naidu Centre for Women's Studies on March 09, 10:30 am at Nehru House. The event was held as part of International Women's Day celebrations in Jamia. Though the number of female students outnumbered males participating in the essay competition however a good number of students from various departments of the varsity also participated with great enthusiasm. The students were supposed to choose any of the two titles given and write an essay of one thousand words.

The two topics chosen for the students were: Sexual Harassment in Indian Campuses and redressal Mechanisms and The portrayal of women in Hindi TV serials .The students will receive their Certificates of Participation & Prizes which will be also given on March 25. The programme was coordinated by Aparna Dixit and Adfer Shah. The Centre is active in research, teaching, various competitions, film screenings, debates, workshops and other outreach programmes.

***