Ramazan Mubarak

Dear students, teachers and members of non-teaching staff,

The holy month of Ramazan provides us with opportunities not only for spiritual enrichment and piety but also for preparing ourselves mentally and emotionally to live in a cohesive world filled with optimism, positivity, discipline, unity and solidarity. We strengthen our relationship with God through the spirit of devotion and gratitude to Him along with our compassion and charity to our fellow human beings. This blessed month reinforces our sincere sense of togetherness, sharing joys and graces of God, reaching out to the needy with our wealth, time and energy and praying to God for the healing of entire humanity.

Fasting also imparts us a message that it is only in consonance with the devotional piety that everyone performs their duties with a genuine sense of calling, profound interest in classroom transaction, meticulous researches, focussed studies and diligent co-curricular activities. It teaches us to help the atmosphere of our university, society and nation radiate the significant amount of enthusiasm, energy and cheerfulness for the achievement of cherished goals. It is high time that we should show alertness, readiness and cultivate the habit of cooperation and support for the betterment of all. It was only by virtue of these things that JMI had easily shifted to the new norms for technology-mediated transaction and interaction, devising new methods in the teeth of the crisis.

Let us keep doing good and meritorious deeds with devotion and constancy, enabling moral values, understanding and peace to reign supreme. May God accept our good deeds, and brighten our life with renewed energy and positive approach to fulfill our social, religious, national and other obligations!

Wishing you all health, happiness and glory!

Ramazan Mubarak
