Dr. B. R. Ambedkar popularly known as Babasaheb Ambedkar is the father of the Indian Constitution. Born on April 14, 1891, Ambedkar faced severe discrimination as he belonged to Mahar caste. Dr. Ambedkar spearheaded the anti-caste movement in India, campaigned against untouchability, social discrimination and fought for the rights of the Dalits and other socio-economically backward classes throughout his life. He was a very well-known political leader, eminent jurist, Buddhist activist, philosopher, anthropologist, historian, orator, writer, economist, scholar and editor. He was posthumously awarded the Bharat Ratna, India's highest civilian honour in 1990.

To commemorate the memory of Babasaheb Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar, and to give him a humble tribute on his birth anniversary, the Department of Adult and Continuing Education and Extension (DACEE), Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi is organizing an online Poster making Competition from 14th – 20th April 2021.
