JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA, NEW DELHI

December 16, 2019

NOTICE

Since the winter vacation has commenced today 16th December 2019, students wishing to leave for their homes may do so. They are advised to take help from their respective provosts to facilitate their journey. At the time of leaving they should inform their provost.

All students are further advised that in case they continue having meetings on the current cause it should be done inside the campus. This is to ensure the safety of all students which is of paramount importance to the university.
