

Dr. Bushra Hussain is an educational consultant and a freelance trainer of teachers, both in-service and pre-service. She has completed her masters in English Literature from JMI, her B.Ed is from AIE, GGSIPU after which she has finished her M.Ed from Amity University. She is a gold medalist in M.Ed and has cleared UGC- NET and JRF after which she got the opportunity to research on the CCE system in the schools of Delhi under the supervision of Prof. Aejaz Masih from JMI. She has been an English Language Teacher in St. Columbus School, Faridabad and Iraqi School, Iraqi Embassy, New Delhi. She has also worked as a Project Fellow in School of Education, JMI under the MHRD project. She has been conducting workshops for both the students and the teachers of Delhi. She has written various research papers and articles on the topic related to teaching and learning. She has been attending various workshops across India related to education and ELT organised by British Council, American Center, NCERT etc. She is looking forward to bring a change in the education system of the nation.