M.A. (Political Science) [Centre for Political Studies, JNU]

M. Phil., Ph.D. (International Organization) [CIPOD, JNU]

M.A. (Human Rights) [University of Leicester, UK]

Specialization / Research Interests

- International Organization, both universal and regional, pertaining to their role in conflict resolution, post-conflict peace-building, reconciliation and transitional justice.
- Human Rights, with special emphasis on international/national standards for the protection of rights, institutional developments, and rights of specific groups. My research has revolved around the linkages between standards of human rights protection and transitional justice in bringing about reconciliation in post-conflict societies.
- Rights of the Minorities and Refugees, my teaching and research interests at the postgraduate level in the department have concerned these two papers in addition to International Humanitarian Law and International Human Rights System. Presently, I am pursuing a two-year research project as part of the Research Award on issues of identity, equality and non-discrimination in a multicultural society in the context of international and national framework for the protection of minorities.
