Subject: Application for ‘Guest Teacher’ in Islamic Studies, Department of Islamic Studies, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi-25

Respected Sir

This is in response to the notice (August 8 2005) pasted at the Notice Board of Department of Islamic Studies, Jamia Millia Islamia seeking guest teacher in Islamic Studies. I am hereby applying for the same. A detailed CV is enclosed here with for your kind perusal. I am sure I will be able to perform my duties very well if given an opportunity to serve your prestigious institution.

It would be appropriate here to introduce myself in brief: I am a graduate of both modern and traditional education system. I obtained my Almiyah and Fadhilah degrees from Jamiatul Falah, a well-known religious seminary of eastern U.P. Then I joined Jamia Millia Islamia for modern education and completed graduation, masters and doctorate from here. I have edited some 10 special issues of Bi-weekly Dawat and worked at Jamia Hamdard for its project on translating al-Qanun. I have also worked on a project “Restarting Education of Drop-out-Muslim Girls” under the Faculty of Islamic Studies and Social Sciences, Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi-62 for Unicef, Lucknow, and recently submitted a project on “Role of Dargahs in Promoting Education” to the Centre for Studies on Indian Muslims, Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi.

With highest regards
Yours sincerely

Why I am most suitable candidate for lectureship?

I was always very good in my studies and have always aspired to excel in the academic field. That's why after completing my traditional education from a religious institution, I obtained modern education. I tried my best to learn more and more at Jamia Millia Islamia, the university I had joined for modern education. During my studies in Madrassa as well as in University I always kept myself associated with academic activities.

It would be appropriate here to introduce myself in brief: I am a graduate of both modern and traditional education systems. I obtained my Almiyah and Fadhilah degrees from Jamiatul Falah, a well-known religious seminary of eastern U.P. Then I joined Jamia Millia Islamia for modern education and obtained graduation, masters and doctorate degrees from here. While doing my M.A (final) I appeared in the National Educational Test (NET) organized by UGC and qualified it in my first attempt. I have edited some 10 special issues of Bi-weekly Dawat and have worked at Jamia Hamdard for its project for translating al-Qanun. I have also worked on a project "Restarting Education of Drop-out-Muslim Girls" under the Faculty of Islamic Studies and Social Sciences, Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi-62 for Unicef, Lucknow, also completed and submitted a project on "Role of Dargahs in Promoting Education" to the Centre for Studies on Indian Muslims, Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi. From September 2005 I am teaching Islamic Studies at graduation level in Jamia Millia Islamia. I have prepared one block of four units and other three units for the B.A (Islamic Studies) programme (through distance mode) of Maulana Abulkalam Azad National Urdu University, Hyderabad. Also I am a regular contributor of articles on popular issues related to Indian Muslims, their education and social conditions, Muslim world specially West Asia in many Urdu newspapers and magazines. Because of my research and teaching experience I feel I am suitable for the post of lecturer in Islamic Studies. If given an opportunity, I think, I could be able to prove my abilities as a lecturer both in teaching as well as in research activities.
