

fatima.n82@gmail.com

Dr.FATHIMA NIZARUDDIN

Current status Working as Assistant Professor at AJK Mass Communication Research Centre, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi

Fellowships

CREAM Studentship, University of Westminster, London (research studentship for pursuing practice-based PhD 2013-2016)

Inlaks Scholarship to pursue MA Screen Documentary at Goldsmiths, University of London (2009-10)

Film Fellowship, Public Service Broadcasting Trust, India

National Geographic's All Roads Seed Grant

Filmography

Nuclear Hallucinations (2016) Film and Performance
Special Mention at Uranium Film Festival Berlin

Selected screenings

Incite/Insight Film Screening, Hosted by CIIS Anthropology and Social Change and California Institute of Integral Studies (CIIS)

Social Justice Film Festival, India

5th Kolkata People's Film Festival, India

Performing Protest: Staging Change Through Art, Godrej Cultural Lab, India

Film South Asia, Nepal

Screening at Brooklyn College, USA

Screening at MIT, USA

Screening as part of Nuclear After Lives, University of Pennsylvania, USA

Screening hosted by South Asian Visual Arts Centre, Canada as part of Unprogrammability: A Discussion on the Ethics and Aesthetics of Working Out of Context

Kochi Biennale, India

Screening at University of Sussex as part of the conference on Poetics and Politics of Documentary

Environment Film Festival Albania

Screening at Humboldt University, Berlin

Screening at Keele University, UK

Another Poverty Film (2012)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SnAOMRP7k-I>

My Mother's Daughter (2011)

Talking Heads (muslim women) (2010)

<https://vimeo.com/55329024>

Screened at various film festivals including Punto de Vista (Spain), East End film festival (UK), Vibgyor International Film Festival (India), Barcelona International Women's Film Festival (Spain), International Filmmor Women's Film Festival (Turkey)

Publications	Peaceful Nuclear Tests, Eco-friendly Reactors, and the Vantage Point of Tamasha BioScope 8(2) 1–20, 2017
---------------------	--

Education	PhD, University of Westminster, London MA in Screen Documentary, Goldsmiths, University of London MA in Mass Communication, AJK Mass Communication Research Centre, Jamia Millia Islamia
------------------	--
