Papers presented in National and International Seminars-

1. Struggle for Survival: Emergence of Independent and Semi-Independent Principalities in Pre-Mughal India, Indian History Congress, Mysore, December, 1993.
22. Abdur Rzzaq Samarqandi and the Writing of the History of Vijayanagar Empire, in an International Seminar on the ‘The Historical Legacy of Medieval Scholars of the East, its Role and Importance for Modern Civilization’ organised by the Cabinet of Ministers, Republic of Uzbekistan (Government House, Tashkent), 15-16 May 2014.
24. Travails of Travel: Peter Mundy’s Journey between Surat and Agra (1630-1632) in a National Seminar held at the SNSS Sitamau (Malwa, M.P.) on ‘Socio-Economic History of Madhya Pradesh and Adjoining States’ from 26-27 December 2014.
25. European Education in Indian Environment: Early History of Western Educational Institutions in India (17th and 18th Century), 75th Session of the Indian History Congress held at JNU from 28-30 December, 2014.
26. European Perception of Indian Armies: A Case of the Seventeenth Century, presented on the occasion of 47th Session of All India Oriental Conference held at the Guwahati University between 2-4 January 2015.
29. Domestic World of the Mughals: Status of Turani and Irani Ladies in the Mughal Household, International Seminar on ‘Mapping Research on Muslim Women: Retrospect and Prospects’ organised from 22 to 23 September 2015 by the Sarojini Naidu Centre for Women’s Studies, JMI.
30. Venturing into the Hostile Country: English East India Company’s Trade Between Gujarat and Sind on the occasion of an International Seminar held on the ‘Trade Routes and Trade Centres of India (Up to 19th Century)’ at SNSS Sitamau (Malwa, M.P.) from 2 to 4 October, 2015.
31. Turkish Familial Connections with the Mughal Court and Household in an International Seminar organised by the Dept. of Turkish Language and Literature, JMI from 1 to 3 November, 2015 on ‘Indo-Turkic Relations: Perspectives and Its Contemporary Relevance’.

32. Connecting Mughal India with the Ottoman Empire: European Merchants as Interpreters of Culture in an International Seminar organised by the Centre for Historical Studies, JNU in collaboration with Bilgi University Istanbul from 7 to 9 November, 2015 on ‘Cultural Encounters and Interactions: Ottoman, Mughal, Vijaynagar and Beyond’.

33. Adjusting Output to Demand: Weavers and Collateral Service Providers’ equation with the English Merchants in Gujarat in the Seventeenth Century, in the International Conference held in Surat from 11-12 December, 2015 on the theme ‘Trans-Regional Trade and Traders-Situating Gujarat in the Indian Ocean from Early Times to c. 1900’ under the aegis of Darshak Itihas Nidhi (A Foundation for Studies and Research in History).

36. Traditions, Customs and Religion: European Merchants and Travellers’ Tryst with the East in a National Seminar held in the CAS in History, A. M. U. Aligarh from 23 to 25 February, 2016 on ‘Ideas, Traditions and Cultural Values in Medieval India’.

Papers Published-

Monograph-

Social Life inside the English factories in India during the Seventeenth Century, 2010.

Text Translated-

Aao Chalein Humayun Ka Maqbara, (Hindi translation of Lets Explore Humayun’s Tomb by Narayani Gupta) Agha Khan Foundation and Archaeological Survey of India, published on 14 November, 2011.

Under Publication

4. Adjusting Output to Demand: Weavers and Collateral Service Providers’ equation with the English Merchants in Gujarat in the Seventeenth Century, in Edward A. Alpers and Chhaya Goswami (ed.) ‘Trans-Regional Trade and Traders- Situating Gujarat in the Indian Ocean from Early Times to c. 1900’ (tentative title, OUP)

Invited Talks-
4. Weavers in Medieval India, 18th Refresher Course in History, Academic Staff College, Jamia Millia Islamia, 8 October, 2011.
6. Sufism in Mughal India, Kamla Nehru College, University of Delhi, 1 March, 2012.
8. Religion State and Society in Medieval India, talk given to the participants of International Summer School Programme at the Department of political Sciences, Jamia Millia Islamia, 27 June, 2014.
9. Religion and Medieval India, delivered a talk to the Jamia School Teachers in a Refresher Course organized by the Faculty of Education, JMI, 21 May, 2014.
11. System of Education in Mughal India, talk given to the participants of International Summer School Programme at the Department of political Sciences, Jamia Millia Islamia, 3 July, 2015.
12. State in Medieval India, talk given to the undergraduates at the Centre for Governance, Information Technology University, Lahore (Pakistan), 22 January 2016.
13. Customs and Religion and the experiences of the Englishmen in India during the Seventeenth Century, 22nd Refresher Course in History held at the UGC Human Resource Development Centre (ASC), JMI, 30 August, 2016.

Seminar organized-
- Coordinator of the Seminar organized on the theme- ‘Making of Regions in South Asian History’, held under the aegis of the DRS- SAP, Department of History & Culture, Jamia Millia Islamia, 9-10 March, 2016.

M.Phils. supervised-
- 5 (Awarded)

Ph. Ds. supervised-
- 3 (Awarded)

Honour/Award/Fellowship received

Deputy Coordinator-
- UGC supported DRS-SAP, Department of History, 2007-2012.

Visiting Fellow-

Membership of academic bodies-
- Indian History Congress
• UP History Congress
• All India Oriental Conference
• South Asian History Conference

Others
• Resident warden- MS Working Women’s Hostel, JMI, 2000- 2004.
• Assistant Superintendent of Exams (UG)- 2007
• Assistant Superintendent of Exams (UG)- 2011
• Assistant Superintendent of Exams (Entrance, UG)- 2012
• Assistant Superintendent of Exams (PG, 2 semesters)- 2015