Enriching Corporate Life at the University

During my association with the Faculty of Law at Jamia Millia Islamia, I have been a part of various committees –Syllabus Committee, Moot Court Committee, Library Committee, Cultural Committee, Attendance Committee, Admission Committee, Time-table Committee, Hospitality Committee to list a few.

At Symbiosis Law School Noida, I was a part of the Organizing Committee for Orientation Programme 2015.

Curriculum development

As a member of the Syllabus Committee I have revised the course structure for B.A.,LL.B(Hons) Programme and syllabi of undergraduate and Post Graduate courses. (applicable from academic session 2018-19)

- Developed Clinical Course on Moot Court Exercise, Internship and Court Management for B.A.,LL.B(Hons) Programme
- Revised syllabus for B.A.,LL.B subjects-Law of Crimes I & II, Legal Methods, Intellectual Property Rights, Health Law
- Revised Syllabus for LL.M Subjects-Comparative Criminal Procedure, International Economic Institutions
- Revised Syllabus for LL.M Executive Programme- Criminal Justice Administration
- Developed syllabus for newly introduced subjects – Forensic Science & the Law, Cyber Crimes & the Law for the LL.M Executive Programme

Enhancing Teaching & Research Skills

I qualified the University Grant Commissions National Eligibility Test (UGC-NET) in September 2012. Thereafter, I have attended four programmes for training and development of teachers, details of which are provided below.

Orientation programme

Oct 9- Nov 6, 2018

Centre for Professional Development in Higher Education,
UGC-Human Resource Development Centre, University of DelhiTeaching Methodology

I use a combination of methods for teaching depending upon the subject I am engaged in teaching and the level of students. Primarily, I use the Lecture Method and the Problem Method for Undergraduates. For the Post graduate and Doctoral students, I employ a mixture of Discussion method and Lecture method. I generally use power-points for my lectures. I also use google classroom to provide study material to my students.

Courses/Subjects Taught

B.A.,LL.B	Family Law; Administrative Law; Law of Crimes I & II; Conflict of Laws.
LL.M	Research Methodology; Law relating to Status of Parties; Cyber Crimes; Conflict of Laws
Ph.D	Research Methodology; Law, Development and Social Change

Research Supervision

At the Faculty, I mentor undergraduate and post graduate students in submission of their research assignments of the subjects I am engaged in teaching. As a Faculty In-charge for Research Paper which is 4 credit paper in LL.M executive programme, I have supervised 30 students in odd semester of 2017-18. So far, six post graduate students have written their Dissertation under my supervision. I am currently supervising four Doctoral Candidates at Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia.
