

Prof. Tabassum Naqi

Professor (Urdu)

In 2001, she embarked on her professional journey as an Education Officer at the National Council for the Promotion of Urdu Language under the Ministry of Human Resource and Development, Government of India. She became a valued member of the Department of Teachers' Training & Non-Formal Education, Faculty of Education, at Jamia Millia Islamia (Central University) in New Delhi in 2004. Here, she assumed the role of Assistant Professor (Urdu), where she had the privilege of teaching diverse subjects such as Urdu, Philosophy of Education, Gender Studies, Women Education, and Language across the Curriculum.

As a language teacher, her approach embodies a beautiful blend of passion, skill, and unwavering dedication to instill a genuine love for languages in her students and facilitate effective learning. Employing a diverse array of teaching materials, ranging from authentic resources to multimedia and interactive activities, she consistently keeps the learning experience stimulating and relevant. By incorporating real-world scenarios and cultural elements into her lessons, she broadens her students' horizons and deepens their comprehension of the language in a truly enriching way.

She holds the esteemed position of CCA Coordinator in the Department of Teachers' Training & Non-Formal Education within the Faculty of Education. In her previous role, she displayed remarkable competence as the Placement Incharge for the department, actively facilitating student placements from 2014 to 2017. Moreover, since 2014, she has been diligently guiding Ph.D. scholars, playing an instrumental role in their academic and professional growth.

Her most remarkable achievement throughout her illustrious teaching career lies in fostering a profound and meaningful bond with her students. Her educational philosophy goes beyond merely transmitting knowledge; it revolves around instilling essential values, nurturing personality development, and bolstering each student's confidence. Creating a supportive and inspiring learning environment for all her students fills her with immense pride.
