Call for Paper for the Next Issue

Volume-13 (XIII) No. 1 (October 2026)

Last date for Submission of Articles/Research Papers is 30 November 2026

The Jamia Journal of Education is dedicated to fostering student-centric, holistic, and multidisciplinary education. In alignment with the landmark recommendations of the Wardha Committee, the Faculty of Education at Jamia Millia Islamia, originally established as Ustadon ka Madarsa, stands as a pioneer in realizing the visionary educational ideals of Mahatma Gandhi and Dr. Zakir Husain. Carrying forward this rich historic legacy of Basic Education (Nai Talim), the Jamia Journal of Education aligns its vision with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. It seeks to champion a student-centric, holistic, and multidisciplinary educational ecosystem that fosters an equitable and vibrant knowledge society. The primary objective of the journal is to explore and promote optimal learning environments that equip learners with 21st-century skills, cultivate a spirit of lifelong learning, and nurture socially conscious, responsible global citizens.

The Jamia Journal of Education is a peer-reviewed, interdisciplinary platform dedicated to advancing research, critical dialogue, and innovative practices across the spectrum of education. The journal invites high-quality conceptual articles, review articles, empirical research papers, and policy analyses from a wide community of scholars and practitioners.

The journal welcomes submissions that address educational issues through diverse thematic, theoretical, and methodological lenses, fostering cross-disciplinary scholarship on national and global educational contexts. We invite high-quality, unpublished empirical research papers, review articles, conceptual studies, and policy analyses across multiple educational disciplines.
