Vice Chancellor's Message

Dear Recruiters,

The Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia aspires to see, in each of its students, a successful legal practitioner and a responsible citizen who would work tirelessly to bridge the gap between the society and the law. To translate this dream into reality, the faculty mentors its students since the very beginning of their enrolment to engage with the theoretical, jurisprudential, and the practical aspects of various dimensions of the legal field. With the objective of training the students with the practical nuances of law, the faculty facilitates internships, study tours, court visits, as well as outreach programs that would eventually give them a first-hand experience about the transition from books to practical learning.

Change and adaptations are two characteristics that keep any endeavour relevant and alive. Keeping up with this motto, the Faculty of Law has adapted itself to the changing times by introducing newer courses, incorporating innovative teaching and learning methods, and constantly engaging with contemporary issues of local and global relevance. The efforts of the teachers and students at achieving overall growth and progress are evident from the dazzling performance of our students at national and international moot court competitions, quizzes, debates, seminars, conferences, and other academic events and extra-curricular activities. Through this brochure I extend to you an invitation to visit our historic, yet young and vibrant campus, which is constantly brimming with life and enthusiasm, and to subsequently engage with them in the intellectual and practical Realm.

Dean's Message

Dear Recruiters, Greetings from Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia!

It is with immense pleasure and heartfelt gratitude that I would like to invite you to consider our bright final year students for a job at your esteemed organisation, or to offer internships to our earnest students from other batches.

The foundations of a strong and vibrant judicial and legal structure in a country is premised upon the basic notion that it shall vehemently promote equity, justice, and good conscience, and must strictly adhere to the principles of natural justice. In this regard, the focus on legal education must be of paramount importance, for it is at its roots where a tree attains its power of immortality.

It is my staunch belief that the existence, persistent growth, and efficacious functioning of our Placement Cell, and its ability to contact top recruiters serves as a stoic base for the students to delve into the legal fraternity with confidence and a positive demeanour in their stride. Whether it concerns the encouragement of law firms, or promotes those who possess a flair for the academia, your active interest and subsequent recruitment would undeniably prove to be a boon for the students who wish to grow and succeed under the masters of the trade.

Faculty of Law, Jamia provides an exciting forum to young disciples to learn the essence of the legal system, hone the skills of our profession, and shape their careers to the best of their satisfaction. The University has attained national and international reputation because of its serious commitment to high academic standards at the undergraduate, post graduate and research degree programmes, quality research and publications, excellent performance in moot court competitions and systematic pedagogy of learning at various levels. The Faculty has undertaken a solemn vow to further the cause of equity and justice, to inculcate amongst our avid learners the ideals of those who successfully shaped our jurisprudential values and judicial activism, and to ensure that every student is committed towards protecting and preserving our constitutionalism, and the rule of law that it encompasses. Quality education is imparted by committed and highly knowledgeable faculty and their valuable guidance serves as a significant feature of the institution. The curriculum and the course structure of B.A. LL.B. (Hons.), two year LL.M., and Ph.D., programmes are vibrant, innovative, and up to date. There are multiple Diploma programmes that this institute offers, including programmes on labour law and air & space law. The University has an excellent library with perfect collection of print and e-resources of books, journals and reports. A well-furnished and fascinating moot court hall, an easily accessible computer lab, and a state of the art conference room support the skill-learning process and intellectual activities of those who shall lead legal fraternity in times to come.

Training & Placement Officer's Message

Dear Recruiters,

It gives me an immense pleasure and pride to present you, the exemplary Batch of 2019, F/o Law, Jamia Millia Islamia, which has endeavoured to set a benchmark of its own and who have been groomed to face the challenges that lie ahead. The students of this Batch are a unique blend of professionalism, perseverance, simplicity and dedication which is evident from the number of laurels brought by them in the past few years. The achievements of this batch doesn't end to academics but in various co-curricular activities like participating in prestigious Moot Court Competitions like Nelson Mandela World Human Rights Moot Court, Nuremberg Moot Court etc; writing articles for reputed blogs like Oxford Human Rights Hub; presenting Research Papers in various International and National platform; sports and an array of cultural and literary events. The diverse interests and background of the students are reflected in their internships which include experiences at distinguished national law firms, corporate houses, PSUs', senior litigators and judiciary. I believe that through these internships, they have gained vital experience required of a law student for the challenges in the professional world.

It is quite innate that we have produced various Scholars, IAS, Judicial services toppers and many leading practitioners of law who have been working in top-tier law firms, PSUs', regulatory bodies. Moreover, due to the consistent grooming by the profound faculty members these students have shaped to excel in the evolving and complex global legal environment. Our vision is to expand our recruitment base by forging conversations with organisations to cater to the diverse interests of our students by reaching out to not merely corporate entities and law firms but also to legal practitioners, law and policy research organisations etc. I am convinced these students possess the required professional acumen and honed the skills to handle fairly challenging positions and shall prove to be an indispensable asset to any organisation. As the placement officer, I cordially invite you to visit our campus and meet the budding legal practitioners and evaluate their flair for legal knowledge and beyond. I wish the students the very best in all their future endeavours and all the recruiters for a pleasant experience.

Placement Committee's Message

Dear Recruiters,

It is with immense pleasure that we are introducing you with the Batch of B.A.LL.B. (H) (2014-2019). This batch is a group of vibrant and committed students who are now ready to join legal field. We are confident that this batch will be of great value to the legal profession, judiciary and corporate law firms.

The main challenges to arena of legal education in the contemporary times is to prepare law students who not only have legal knowledge, but are also proficient in legal skills such as critical analysis, reasoning, problem solving, legal communication, as well as have a sharp acumen to translate the theoretical understanding to address legal questions arising in their professional and personal interaction with the society at large. Keeping in mind the above requirements, the teachers of the Faculty of Law, JMI have been striving to the best of our potentials and means to provide our students training that would chisel them into fine lawyers who are not just masters of their art but are also updated and abreast with the latest developments. Faculty of Law today stands as one the best law faculty in India and its strength lays in the pool of the talent that it attracts from all over India. We take personal care for all round development of the students both academically and professionally. Over the years this faculty has earned a reputation of being a center of excellence. We ensure that our students would be competent at confronting and effectively dealing with the emerging national and international dimensions of legal profession and would also continue to make up proud, the way they have done during the course of their studentship at the faculty.

The Faculty of Law invites all potential employers to visit our Faculty for an interaction with our students for placements. I take this opportunity to wish our outgoing students all success in their lives. May the Almighty very munificently shower peace and His blessings on all of them.

About The Faculty

The Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia was established in 1989. At the outset a three year LL.B. programme was introduced. Over the past two decades, the Faculty has made significant progress in terms of restructuring of Courses and Syllabi, introducing new courses, experimenting with innovative techniques of imparting legal education and strengthening its clinical programme in order to give due emphasis to the expanding horizons of the legal profession.

In its continuous endeavours in this regard, the Faculty has since introduced a five year integrated B.A.,LL.B (Hons.) Programme from the academic session 2002-2003 thereby replacing the three year LL.B. Course; a two year Post-graduate Programme (LL.M.) in three specialized streams of Personal Laws, Corporate Laws and Criminal Laws and a Ph.D. programme, both having commenced from the academic session 2000- 2001.

The Faculty of Law has established a Legal Services Clinic with a whole range of legal aid programmes in the agenda. In fact, the students of our faculty have undergone training for Para-Legal Volunteers under the aegis of the National Legal Services Authority. The students have also been participating in Moot Courts, Client Counseling and other literary and debating activities and have won several laurels. The students of our Faculty are provided with all the necessary facilities to develop their curricular and co-curricular abilities, besides focusing on an overall personality development so as to face the challenges in the competitive world today.

About The Faculty

The Faculty of Law organizes Moot Courts within the class rooms, Intra Class Moot Court Competitions and National Moot Court Competitions. In fact, in March 2011 a National Law Reform Competition was organized by the Faculty of Law which was the first of its kind in India. We also organize National Seminars and Conferences periodically besides Extension Lectures by eminent speakers from India and abroad.

One of our alumni qualified for the Civil Services Examination in 2011. Two of our students have been selected into the Indian Army, Judge Advocate General Branch, where only ten women were selected from all over India in March 2011. One student topped the West Bengal Judicial Service Examination. Our alumni were selected to the Delhi Judicial Service, Guwahati Judicial Service and Haryana Judicial Service.

The students of the Faculty have been regularly associating with Lawyers, Law Firms, Corporate and NGOs during the winter and summer vacations. Besides, the curriculum of the Five Year Law Course includes four intensive practical training modules.

The Faculty of Law is striving to be an institution of excellence in legal education.

TABEER'18

Tabeer is an Urdu word which means to interpret the dreams or to know the result of one's deeds. In this first edition of our law fest, we gave creative freedom and a platform to all the participants, to interpret and create their victories according to their abilities and talents.

In the history of the Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia, "Tabeer" emerged as an idea after rigorous brainstorming. The fest hosted a plethora of events, each meted out to test the participant's academic, cultural and sporting skills coupled with their zeal and vigour in bringing forth the competitive spirits.

In its first edition itself, Tabeer witnessed participation of a large number of participants from pan India who competed with each other on academic, sports, and cultural fronts from both legal and other fields of education. Students from different law schools and universities actively participated and won laurels in various events.

This three day fest, i.e., from 19th -21st January 2018 concluded with a Sufi and a band performance cheering its way through the crowd. The first edition turned out to be a huge success.

Visit by Fulbright Specialist Dr. Catherine Cerulli at the Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia

Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi, hosted Dr. Catherine Cerulli, Professor in the Department of Psychiatry, University of Rochester Medical Centre, New York, for two weeks between 9th – 20th September 2018. Dr. Cerulli visited the Faculty of Law as a Fulbright Specialist - 2017-18, under the US India Educational Foundation Programme. This programme enabled the Faculty of Law to apply and seek specialised teaching-learning engagements from one scholar of repute from any of the US universities.

Having worked as an Assistant District Attorney in Monroe County, New York for many years; currently, in her present capacity as the Director of Susan B. Anthony Center and the Laboratory of Interpersonal Violence and Victimization, Dr. Cerulli employs statistical methods to understand the legal aspects of interpersonal violence and crimes committed by individuals and delinquents. A recipient of Excellence in Public Service by SUNY Albany Alumni Association, National Institute of Mental Health New Investigator Award, Justice Award to End Domestic Violence by New York State Governor Pataki, Outstanding Young Lawyer Award by the New York State Bar Association and many more awards and distinctions, Dr. Cerulli has been a voracious writer and contributor to academic journals and publications of eminence.

During her two weeks at the Faculty, Dr. Cerulli taught Empirical Methods in Legal Research for the Graduate, Master's and Doctoral students of the Faculty of Law. She also delivered several open lectures ranging from the incarceration of women in the US Prisons, to child-delinquency, to human trafficking from an international perspective and handling of trauma by lawyers in their practice. While teaching empirical methods, especially quantitative methods to the students, Dr. Cerulli drew significantly from her research work spanning over several decades in various regions across the world. Apart from her classroom teachings and open lectures, Dr. Cerulli also engaged on a personal basis with research related sessions with the students. Dr. Cerulli also met the Honourable Vice Chancellor, Prof. Shahid Ashraf and briefed him about her current research engagements and future interest areas.

The Faculty of Law, Jamia Millia Islamia hopes that our students utilise and disseminate the knowledge gained through this robust and intellectually thrilling engagement with Dr. Cerulli through their research and publications.
