

The Department Offers a Post graduate Degree (MA) in Human Rights and Duties Education with 16 courses in 4 semesters. The Department has an excellent Library for Human Rights with more than 300 books. The Department has held several extension lectures besides conducting workshops/seminars/symposia on Human Rights issues. The courses have been designed to give the students not only theoretical knowledge of rights but also practical training in the implementation procedures of human rights. The PG Degree course students have been taken to various places which include.

- Various National Commissions
- Slums
- NGOs
- Courts
- Jails
- Police Stations

M.A. Students are offered Internships in NGO's as a part of their curricular work.

The Academic Staff College JMI conducts UGC sponsored Refresher Courses on Human Rights Education for University / College Teachers. The revised and updated syllabi for the MA Course contains the following course format.

List of Papers to be offered Human Rights and Duties Education (M.A Course)

M.A. (Previous)

First Semester

Compulsory Courses

1. Contemporary Political Theory
2. Human Rights: Philosophical and Historical Foundations
3. International Human Rights System
4. Women's Rights with special reference to India

Second Semester

Compulsory Courses

1. Indian Political System: Constitution and Institutions
2. Human Rights in India
3. International Humanitarian Law
4. Rights of the Child with special reference to India

M.A. (Final)

Third Semester

Compulsory Courses

1. Research Methodology
2. New Rights Discourse

3. Science, Technology Environment and Human Rights
4. Minority Rights with special reference to India

Fourth Semester

Compulsory Courses

1. Rights of the Refugees
2. Political Economy of Development in India.
3. Social Movements & Human Rights in India
4. Human Rights & Criminal Justice System in India