JMI students win prizes at “2026 The 1st Overseas University Student Literary Award”

New Delhi, September 29, 2026

Two students of M.A. 2nd Year (Korean) from the Department of Foreign Languages, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) win prizes at the “2026 The 1st Overseas University Student Literary Award.” This prestigious competition was organized by Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) in collaboration with the Hwang Sun-won Literary Place-Sonagi Village, South Korea, on 25/09/2026.

- Ms. Tanshi Saini, M.A. in Korean (2nd Year), has been awarded the 1st Prize in the Poetry category.
- Ms. Priti, M.A. in Korean (2nd Year), has also been awarded the 3rd Prize in the Poetry category.

This remarkable accomplishment underscores the academic rigour, linguistic proficiency, and literary creativity fostered within our Korean language and literature programme.

Commenting on this achievement, Dr. Nawnit Kumar, Assistant Professor of Korean, stated: “Our students are working diligently and excelling not only at the national level in India but also on international platforms. This success is a fine example of the visionary leadership of our Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor and Hon’ble Registrar of Jamia Millia Islamia, whose continued support has been instrumental in strengthening our academic and international engagement.”

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Ms. Tanshi Saini and Ms. Priti, and we remain committed to nurturing such excellence in Korean language, literature, and cultural studies at Jamia Millia Islamia, he said.
