Jamia Millia Islamia retains 12th rank in 'Universities' category in MHRD's NIRF 2018; Law and Architecture faculties among top 10

Jamia Millia Islamia's Faculty of Law and faculty of Architecture have made it among the top ten institutions in their respective category even as the university retained its 12th position in the 'Universities' category in the MHRD's National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) India Rankings 2018 released today by Human Resource Development Minister, Shri Prakash Javadekar.

In the 'overall' category, JMI has moved up at 19th position from being at 20th place in NIRF 2017 ranking.

The Faculty of Law has been placed at 6th position with a score of 59.91 while the Faculty of Architecture is ranked at 8th place securing a score of 49.09. This is the first time that rankings for Law and Architecture have been introduced in NIRF.

In the 'Management' category, JMI has got 34th rank with a score of 47.08. While retain its 12th rank in the 'Universities' category JMI has scored 56.18, improving its score from 51.75 in 2017.

The NIRF India Rankings 2018 was released by the Human Resource Development Minister at an impressive function at Vigyan Bhawan. JMI Vice-Chancellor, Prof Talat Ahmad was also present on the occasion.

Prof Ahmad expressed his happiness over the Law and the Architecture faculties featuring among the top 10 institutions in their respective category. Observing that both Law and Architecture are much sought after and competitive disciplines, Prof Ahmad said that the rankings will boost their morale to perform even better in the future.

Referring to JMI going up by one notch in the 'overall' category, Prof Ahmad said that it was an encouraging sign that the university is improving in most parameters but there is scope for improvement in certain others.

The rankings have been done on the basis of parameters that include- teaching, learning and resources, research and professional practices, graduation outcomes, outreach and inclusivity and perception. MHRD introduced NIRF in 2015 and its first rankings were released in 2016.
