JMI employees took pledge to work unstintingly to eradicate corruption:

Employees of JMI took pledge to be transparent in their working and eradicate corruption. This pledge taking ceremony was organised at the Central lawn of the main administrative block, as part of vigilance awareness week. Registrar JMI Mr A.P. Siddiqui (IPS) administered the pledge to the teachers, administrative and other staff members to make JMI corruption free. For greater awareness every department of JMI is also organising different program separately

Administering the pledge, to the employees Mr Siddiqui said JMI is committed to corruption free society.

The pledge released by the Central vigilance Commission addressed to all government departments reads:

“We, the public servants of India, do hereby solemnly pledge that we shall continuously strive to bring about integrity and transparency in all spheres of our activities. We also pledge that we shall work unstintingly for eradication of corruption in all spheres of life. We shall remain vigilant and work towards the growth and reputation of our organisation. Through our collective efforts, we shall bring pride to our organisations and provide value based service to our countrymen. We shall do our duty conscientiously and act without fear or favour.”

The Central Vigilance Commission, as part of its efforts to promote probity in public life and to achieve a corruption free society, observes Vigilance Awareness Week every year. The week in which 31st October, the birthday of late Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel falls is observed as Vigilance Awareness Week.
