Press Release

JMI to organize cleanliness drive on a large scale on 2nd October

Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) will organize cleanliness drive at a large scale on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti on 2nd October. A number of programs will be organized by the NSS unit of JMI.

Prof. Naimat Ullah Khan, Program Coordinator, NSS, JMI said, 'Cleanliness drive has been going on in the university as part of Swachhta Pakhwada. Now on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti we are planning to culminate it in a grand manner".

NSS unit of the university has planned a cleanliness awareness rally from the university campus which will go to neighbouring localities Sukhdev Vihar, Sarai Jullena and will culminate at New Friends Colony Community Centre. Students will carry out cleanliness drive at the community centre. Teachers, students and other staff will clean the area. A street play will also be organized at the community centre.

The rally will come back to the university where a poster making competition will also be organised.
