DTHM,JMI

Six day Skill Testing & Certification Programme was organized for inmates of Mandoli Jail No.14 by the Department of Tourism & Hospitality Management, Jamia Millia Islamia. The programme started on 25th March and completed successfully on 30th March, 2019. The training programme was sponsored by Ministry of Tourism, Govt. of India. Yesterday, the trained candidates were presented certificates after successful completion of their trainings.

The training was organized as a part of capacity building programme by the Department of Tourism & Hospitality Management for the 104 inmates (cooks and services) of Mandoli Jail who were involved in performing tasks related to cooking, service of food as well as performing jobs related to cleaning of various areas. Under the guidance of Prof. Nimit Chowdhary, faculties of the department Ms. Binita Chakraborty, Ms. Sumedha Agarwal, Ms. Priya Singh, Ms. Shweta Chandra, Mohd. Yunus and Mohd. Arman were involved in conducting this training programme.

They gave the training on personal hygiene and grooming, first aid, attributes of hospitality staff, food service, work ethics and effective communication, practical demonstrations on food preparation (Indian cuisine) and housekeeping etc. This skill certification has made the inmates learn about the standard operating procedure of food and beverage services and they were able to acquire knowledge on various aspects of the same.

Ms. Sudha Chandra was the coordinator for this skill certification programme. Mr Rakesh Katariya, Superintendent Mandoli Jail number 14 was the Guest of Honor for the valedictory session. While interacting with the trainees he highlighted the importance of the training and how this training will enable them to execute their job more efficiently.
