JMI organizes ‘Skill Training Workshop’ for faculty members and research scholars

The Department of Social Work, Jamia Millia Islamia, organised one week long ‘Skill Training Workshop’ for the faculty members and research scholars. The workshop which started on 25th February and ended on 2nd March, 2019, was conducted by Dr. Nagmani Rao from Karve Institute of Social Sciences, Pune. She is currently a Visiting Fellow under the CAS Phase II in the Department of Social Work, JMI.

The workshop was inaugurated in the conference hall of the Department, with the opening remarks by Prof. Ushvinder Kaur Popli, Head, Department of Social Work, Jamia Millia Islamia, on 25th February 2019.

The workshop which followed experiential learning was aimed at strengthening the pedagogy of conducting skill labs with students. A number of group games, role plays and simulations exercises were used to make the training effective and participative. It also included a hands on training, where each of the participants conducted skill lab with a group of students under the supervision of the resource person followed by the feed back towards the end.

The workshop was attended by 15 members including faculty members and research scholars. It is expected that the participants will be a resource pool to further train the other interested faculty members. The entire program was videographed also to develop learning material for further use. From the Department of Social Work side, Dr. Habeebul Rahiman, Assistant Professor, coordinated the workshop.
