Children from marginalized communities participated in Inter Agency Sports and Cultural Meet 2019 at JMI

Department of Social Work, Jamia Millia Islamia organized Inter Agency Sports and Cultural Meet 2019 on the occasion of birth anniversary of Dr. Zakir Hussain former President of India and one of the founding members of Jamia Millia Islamia on Sunday, February 17, 2019. The event was marked with the showcasing of latent talent of the children from diverse marginalized communities, representing different social sector organizations, with great zeal and fervor in both sports and cultural events.

The cultural events comprised of dance, singing and skit performances. The sports events were obstacle race, chatti race and group activity. The sports activity was held on the ground of Jamia Senior Secondary School whereas the cultural event was conducted in M.A. Ansari Auditorium. Ms. Chandani Khan, Co- Founder, Voice of Slums, was the chief guest for the Inter-agency meet. Total 295 children of 21 organizations participated in the agency meet. For the final trophy (girls), there was a tie between Sakshi and Shanti Sahyog. The final trophy for boys was awarded to Save the Children.

This event imbibed in the children a futuristic vision to be a part of a great educational Institution like Jamia Millia Islamia.
