Press Release

Teachers should prepare school students for a perfect society, says JMI VC

Vice-Chancellor, JMI, Prof. Najma Akhtar today interacted with students and teachers of various schools run by the university. During her nearly two hours interaction she impressed upon the teachers to prepare students for a “perfect” society and fully develop the potentials of children.

She said that development of children’s potentials and personalities are necessary to enable them to compete in various competitions in and outside Delhi.

Impressed by the performance of students, Prof. Akhtar said that they have potentials to do well in various fields if they are given proper guidance.

Stressing upon the need for educating girls she said gone are the days when girls even after passing 10th and 12th examination used to sit at home. Time has changed and they should be prepared to make their mark in every sphere of life.

Giving example of her being the first woman Vice-Chancellor of JMI she hoped girl students passing out of JMI would lead in various fields. She said even some of the girls sitting here may be occupying the Vice-chancellor’s chair in future.

She wished the students for Ramadan, likely to start next week, and talked about the significance of the holy month which teaches discipline and self control in life. The Vice-Chancellor said that the discipline and self restraint help in every sphere of life and each one of us should follow these qualities in making an ideal society.

She was briefed by the Principals and teachers of various schools run by JMI about the achievements and problems being faced by them. The Vice-Chancellor assured them of all possible help in resolving their issues.

She told the teachers to guide students for applying for various scholarships. She said teachers should also try for awards being given by various agencies and state and central governments.

Among those present during this interaction were Director of Schools(Morning) Prof. Ilyas Husain, Principal of Jamia Senior Secondary School Dr. Muzaffar Hassan, Principal of Syed Abid Hussain Senior Secondary School Dr. Abdul Naseeb Khan, Headmaster(Officiating) Jamia Middle School Mr. Mohd. Mursalin, Principal of Jamia Girls School Mrs. Anjum and Director of Mushir Fatima Nursery School Mrs. Rukhsana Parveen.
