

March 14, 2024

Press Release

JMI's Faculty of Fine Arts organises Kalam Festival

Faculty of Fine Arts, Jamia Millia Islamia(JMI) organised Kalam Festival from 4th to 14th March, 2024. The 11 day long festival was most anticipated event.

This vibrant festival promised to provide an unforgettable experience for attendees, showcasing a wide array of incredible artists, memorable Art Exhibition paying a homage to veteran Artist Achutan Ramachandran Nair - A homage exhibition of guru shishya parampara, unique performances, creative stalls, local vendors with art products, and mouth-watering cuisine.

With a diverse and exciting lineup, Kalam Festival, aimed to cater to all tastes and ages. From globally acclaimed artists, art critic like Uma Nair, to up-and-coming local talent, there have been something for everyone to enjoy. Even, sports and games were enjoyed with unique competitions which filled the hearts of the student with extra excitement, joy and energy.

Prof. Bindulika Sharma, Dean, Faculty of Fine Arts has been thrilled to announce that this year's headliners marking the competition of graffiti, rangoli and performances that did set the stage on fire.

MF Hussain Art Gallery, portrayed the brilliant art exhibition showcasing artistic brilliance of pupils of A. Ramachandran, curated and walked through by eminent art critic Uma Nair. The closing ceremony of the exhibition was held on 14th March with a lecture and photoshoot of all the Art volunteers with the Dean and Ms. Uma Nair.

Apart from the musical performances by the students on the final day had the opportunity to immerse themselves in a variety of artistic expressions. The festival featured breathtaking visual installations, interactive art displays, and captivating wall graffiti and performances.

In addition to the artistic experience, the creative art and food stalls marked the pride, showcasing the very best crafts and culinary delights. Attendees could indulge in a wide range of mouth-watering street food from various cultures, allowing them to embark on a culinary journey. Together with unique craft stalls, featuring handmade jewelry, and artwork, the festival offered a diverse and vibrant marketplace for all attendees to explore.

Public Relations Office
Jamia Millia Islamia

