Sikkim State University VC delivered lecture under the aegis of Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat (EBSB) at JMI

Prof. G.K.N. Chhetry, Vice Chancellor, Sikkim State University, Gangtok, Government of Sikkim delivered a lecture on “Cultural Integration and Harmony with special focus on Sikkim and Delhi” under the aegis of Government of India’s, Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat (EBSB) initiated by the Hon’ble Prime Minister of India. Jamia Millia Islamia is a leading academic institution for the implementation of the EBSB seeking cultural togetherness of the participating states.

Speaking on the occasion, Prof. Chhetry dwelt upon Sikkim’s history, ethnic diversity and harmony, organic agriculture, tourism, green initiative, secular ethos and the best practices for all-round development of the State.

Registrar JMI Mr. A.P Siddiqui (IPS) welcomed the speaker and explained the need for organising the lecture.

The event was attended by the Deans of Faculties, Heads of Departments, Directors of Centres, officers and university officials.

The lecture helped the audience in understanding the state and its people in a better way.

The objective of the lecture was to develop mutual understanding between Delhi & Sikkim.
