Press Release

Jamia Community Radio to observe World Radio Day

On the occasion of World Radio Day on February 13, Jamia Community Radio (JCR) 90.4FM will organize a special lecture on “PEACEFUL AND TOLERANT WORLD”. Dr. Laxmi Shankar Vajpai former Deputy Director General All India Radio (New Delhi) will deliver this lecture which will be followed by a cultural program by the students of Jamia Millia Islamia and community members. The programme will start at 02:30 pm at the Auditorium of Engineering Faculty.

In 2012 UNESCO in the 36th session of the General Conference proclaimed February 13 as the World Radio Day to coincide with the establishment of the United Nations Radio in 1946. It also invited all United Nations Member States, organizations of the United Nations system and other international and regional organizations, professional associations and broadcasting unions, as well as civil society, including non-governmental organizations and individuals, to duly celebrate World Radio Day, in the way that each considers most adequate.

Dr. Laxmi Shankar Bajpai has given new dimensions to Hindi commentary and has brought to the public Aankho Dekha Haal on many occasions on 26 January, 15 August and many other events of National and International importance. Dr. Laxmi Shankar Bajpai was the only poet representing India at 2013 World Poetry Festival, held at Venezuela. He has done Poetry recital in several cities of Northern Ireland, Wales and Britain, Moscow and also poetry recital as a representative of India in Poland, and Trinidad and England, in 2005. He was awarded Children’s Literature Award by Delhi Hindi Academy. He has been a translator and moderator of AIR's prestigious ‘All Language Poets Conference’ several times. His Poems have been published in numerous magazines of the country and abroad. He has compared more than 100 national and international events live at AIR Akashwani like Republic Day Parade, International Film Festival in Goa, Lahore bus trip etc.
