

April 8, 2022

Press Release

School Alumni group donates smart tv sets to Jamia School

With an aim to serve back their alma mater, Jamia School Alumni 1983 batch has given two smart tv sets, two public address system and one class room audio system to the Jamia Senior Secondary School. Alumni group handed over the goods to the school in a program chaired by Registrar JMI Prof. Nazim Husain Al Jafri in the presence of Incharge Alumni Connect Cell, Principal of School and others at Registrar's Secretariat.

On this occasion Prof. Ibraheem, Incharge Alumni Connect Cell of the university expressed his pleasure over the philanthropic and school centric activities of alumni. He also informed the gathering about the different initiatives being taken by the cell to bring various alumni group on a single platform.

Registrar JMI Prof. Nazim Husain Al-Jafri appreciated the gesture of the alumni group and extended his good wishes for any such future endeavours. He also hoped that Jamia Alumni will also come forward and start contributing significantly to the overall development of the University.

Public Relations Office
Jamia Millia Islamia

