JMI Foundation Day Celebrations: Jamia Schools organise Gandhi & Nehru Trophy

Jamia Senior Secondary School and Jamia Middle School organized Gandhi Trophy Inter School Competition and Nehru Trophy Inter School Competition respectively on the occasion of 102nd Foundation Day of the Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI).

Gandhi Trophy:

The Gandhi Trophy Inter School Competition and cultural events were held on 29th October, 2022 pm in the Multipurpose Hall of the school. JMI Vice Chancellor Prof. Najma Akhtar graced the occasion to encourage students & teachers present in the programme and appreciated the cultural shows and events presented during the programme.

The Chief Guest of the event Prof. Naheed Zahoor (Head, IASE) was welcomed by the principal of the school Prof. Jasim Ahmad. Prof. Naheed Zahoor is one of the alumni of the school, shared her enriched experiences of school days and reminded the students about the ethos and culture of JMI. Then came the scintillating and beautiful performance by the tiny tots of the Mushir Fatima Nursery School which received a standing ovation from the audience.

In his address Prof. Jasim Ahmad reminded all the teachers, students and parents about the prime objectives of JMI for which it was established and advised to take a pledge to work in that direction.

The three major events that took place were Ghazal Sarai, Bait-Bazi and Ad-Mad-World, each being equally successful and entertaining. Multiple schools competed in all the three events and the Anglo Arabic Sr. Sec. School with the most wins was declared the winner of the Gandhi Trophy.
